CAMPAIGN FOR NEW HOSPITAL

Movement Launched to Raise $50,000 For Much-Needed Institution.

CHURCHES TO ASSIST.

Sunday Schools of City Will Engage in Active Work in Behalf of the Undertaking.

After months of preliminary work during which time the plans have been carefully mapped out, tomorrow will mark the commencement of the forty days campaign to raise $50,000 for the new buildings of the Alexandria Hospital. The movement will be launched in the churches and Sunday schools which have always contributed largely to the support of the hospital which is undenominational. Committee of prominent business men, named by the executive committee, having charge of the collection of the funds, will visit every Sunday school and church in the city tomorrow and place before the congregation the need of a larger and better hospital. At a meeting of the teachers and superintendents of Sunday schools to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, plans will be discussed for the work to be undertaken tomorrow.

Five thousand buttons have been prepared and will be distributed tomorrow calling attention to the campaign and an elaborate program of advertising has been mapped out. Banners will be displayed in prominent places in the city and all vehicles will carry cards advertising the movement. Alexander J. Wedderburn, editor of the Alexandria Sunday Times has been appointed publicity agent and has opened headquarters in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

From the headquarters, which are at the corner of King and Washington streets, will be displayed a huge clock which will also mark the progress of the collection.

The Alexandria Hospital cares for the sick of the surrounding counties of Alexandria and an effort will be made to secure contributions from these communities. A committee, of which James W. Roberts is chairman will visit the Fairfax Teachers Association which meets in Oakton today and endeavor to interest them in a movement. Another committee will attend the meeting of the Fairfax Association at Fairfax Court House Monday night and call attention to the needs of the hospital.

CHECKS MAILED.

Four Thousand Depositors to Receive Dividends.

Howard W. Smith, receiver of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, today mailed to the 4,000 depositors to the defunct institution checks representing a dividend of five per cent upon the amount of their deposits. The total amount of the claims is $575,000 and the five per cent amounts to $28,750. With this payment the depositors will have received 40 per cent, represented by four dividends of twenty, ten and two of five per cent each.

In a letter to the depositors Receiver Smith states that there will be a final dividend from three to five per cent. The company went into the hands of the receivers December 28th, 1910.

AN AUTO RECORD.

Going up. Production figures at the Ford factory at Highland Park, Mich., are shattering all records. Eleven hundred and more cars a day for 26 consecutive working days was the record in March. When the last car had passed out of the factory's doors on March 31, there had been 28,712 Fords built and shipped during this month of thirty-one days, of which five were Sundays. Part of these cars were delivered and sold by the Remschell Auto Sales Co., of this city. Another car load of Fords was received yesterday. Read Remschell ad in

DRAMATIC RECITAL.

Elocution Class Gives Final Recital of the Year.

Last night in the assembly hall of St Mary's Academy the elocution class presented the final recital of the year. It showed marked improvement made by the class since its first public apearance and reflected great credit on the teacher, Miss Gertrude Spetzler, of Baltimore.

"A Dream of Fair Women," beautifully costumed to represent the characters, Titania, Eve, Jeptha's daughter, Helen of Troy, Cornelia, Joan of Arc, Isabelle, Pocahontas, and Columbia, and introducing a number of Grecian maidens who in graceful attitudes displayed the result of careful training along aesthetic lines, also a carefree band of gypsies, chosen from the class in physical culture, who gave their gypsy dance with all the abandon of the race, was a particularly pleasing selection.

Father Ryan's "Song of the Mystic," read by Virginia Downey, and pantomined by twenty-two young girls in Grecian attire was splendidly done.

The monologues and recitations were of so varied a nature as to make the program, now serious, now laughable, a very interesting one; and the ease with which the young readers gave their selections was a proof of the good work being accomplished in voice training and in the development of grace and poise which is the ultimate purpose of the study. Those taking part in the program were Mary Quinn, Virginia Downey, Mildred Goods, Julia Duncan, Eleanor Nugent, Ethel and Genevieve Adams, Elizabeth Hartr, Ruth Priest, Mabel Martin, Florence Evans, Julia Hopkins, Anna and Helen Cook, Henrietta Cissel, Thelma Longfellow, Helen Waddy, Geraldine Davis, Agnes Donaldson, Evelyn Howard, Emma Hubbard, Virginia Wilkins, Ruth Devlin, Loretta Griffith, Margaret Hill, Regina and Virginia Fannon, Hazel Crown, Gladys White, Vivian Webster, Eleanor McGahey, Helen Beall, Geraldine Backenheimer, Eula Puckett, and Georgia Wilson.

PHYSICAL FEATURES OF SCOTIA

Scotch Hotch-Potch or Scotland in Song and Story.

Under the above title, Mr. Thos. D. D. Clarke, a native of Edinburgh, will render the following interesting program at the Young People's Building next Tuesday evening, Aprl 21st at 8 P. M., for the benefit of the Children's Home.

Hotch-Potch explained. Physical features of Scotland described in prose and song. Outline of history beginning with the 14th century. Robert Bruce, Scotland's warrior king in song. Poetic version af the life and death of Mary Queen of Scots. A song from Burns. The secret of Scotland's charm. Its relation to the United States. Its intellectual, commercial and industrial importance Descriptive talks on Scotch characteristics closing with a peep at Edinburgh town.

It is hoped that so delightful and instructive a program will induce many to attend.

Proceeds for benefit of the Children's Home.

PROPERTY SALES.

Erastus B. Freeland has sold to Howard W. Smith a house and lot at the southwest corner of Madison and Washington streets.

James A. Hulfish et al, trustees of the Second Baptist Church, have sold to J. D. Knight two lots on the east side of Columbus street, between Oronoco and Pendleton streets.

HUERTA'S REPLY SAID TO BE ON WAY

Speculations Concerning Dictator's Answer to United States.

AWAITING OUTCOME.

Generally Believed in Washington That Huerta's Message Will Show Quibbling Over the Salute.

Washington, April 18.—Shortly before noon today the President issued the following statement:

"Gen. Huerta is still insisting upon doing something less that has been demanded and something less than would constitute an acknowledgment that his representatives were entirely in the wrong in the indignities they have put upon the government of the United States. The President has determined that if Gen. Huerta does not yield by 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon he will take the matter to Congress Monday."

Washington, April 18—With copies of translations of the latest message of Charge O'Shaughnessy in his pocket, Secretary Tumulty at 11 o'clock today rushed from the State Department to the Washington Golf links where the President was playing golf. It was reported that these dispatches indicated that Huerta was still desirous of quibbling and that the answer was not a decisive one.

The crisis of the Mexican situation is at hand. Huerta's reply to the United States ultimatum is enroute.

President Wilson and his advisers are awaiting with unconcealed eagerness his answer to a final demand for a salute to the flag sent him yesterday by the United States.

After a long session with his cabinet last night, the Mexican ruler about about 3 o'clock this morning turned over to Charge O'Shaughnessy his country's demands.

This was at once put into code and rushed to Washington. Its receipt here is momentarily expected.

At 9 o'clock this morning Secretary of State Bryan told the President that it would be some hours before the answer of Huerta is received and translated.

Meanwhile, as the war vessels of the United Saetts are rushing southward along both coasts, it was emphasized at the State Department that no time limit enters into the present situation. Huerta can climb down and accept the ultimatum covering the formalities concerning the salute as laid down by Admiral Mayo up to the arrival off Tampico of the war fleet of Admiral Badger.

Unless there is some unexpected outrage against Americans the Government will make no decisive move until Badger's fleet is assembled on the east coast and Rear Admiral Howard's Pacific squadron is reported from San Diego as in readiness.

This in all probability will be next Wednesday morning.

MAYOR MITCHEL HAS BODY GUARD

New York Executive Watched Day and Night by Eight Detectives.

GOLD FROG TALISMAN.

Mahoney, who Attempted to Assassinate Mayor, Dipsomaniac and Said to be Irresponsible.

New York, April 18.—After visiting the New York Hospital, where Corporation counsel Frank L. Polk is confined, Mayor John Purroy Mitchell went about his work as usual today, following the attempt on his life, but he was guarded by eight men picked from the detective force by Police Commissioner Wood.

Hereafter the mayor is to be guarded day and night by this force of special detectives. They were selected by the police commissioners for their reputations for daring and knowledge of the cranks and others which might attempt Mitchel's life.

Physicians at the New York Hospital reported the condition of Polk unchanged today. The wound in his chin is painful but not serious, and the wounded corporation counsel slept during a portion of the night.

The old man, who attempted to kill Mayor Mitchell and shot Polk, after hours of evasion, finally admitted last night that he was Michael P. Mahoney and that his home was Newport, Ky.

Mahoney was arraigned today on a charge of assault with intent to kill and will probably be indicted Monday. It is believed, however, that he will committed to an asylum for criminal insane.

Mahoney refused to sleep last night. He sat on his cot with his face buried in his hands or paced his cell mumbling to himself. He would not try to sleep on a cot, he said, because he was accustomed to sleeping on a mattress and with his head raised high on a pillow.

Mahoney said he went to the City Hall once before expecting to murder the mayor. Then the mayor came out between two women.

"I coudn't shoot a man in the presence of ladies," said Mahoney. Wednesday it was raining and dark, and Mahoney said the bad weather "kind of took the mad out of me."

Mayor Mitchel not only carries a revolver, but a talisman, and the mayor gives a small gold frog which he has on his watch chain part of the credit for the escape from death.

"The talisman did it,' he said before the press club last night.

The wife of a citizen of Costa Rica gave the mayor the gold frog last fall. She said it was from the burial mound of a prehistoric race, and was certain protection against death and violence. Mitchel said he had expected such an attack some time, and that it was one of the hazards he assumed in taking office.

MEET ON STEAMER.

Sons of Revolution Traveling to Yorktown Battlefield.

The first "itinerary Congress" of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution was begun yesterday afternoon aboard the steamer Southland, which left last night for a trip down the Potomac. Ambassador Jusserand, of France, and Mme. Jusserand are honor guests aboard the vessel.

Ambassador Jusserand recently directed attention to the fact that Admiral Francis Joseph Paul de Grasse, the French naval officer, whose aid brought about the capitulation of Cornwallis and his surrender to Washington at Yorktown in 1781, was the only foreign commander who took part in the American Revolution who has not been honored by this country with a statue.

At the first session of the society, held as soon as the vessel was under way, a resolution was adopted to arrange for the erection of a suitable statue. The resolution was offered by Colonel Henry May, president general.

The Southland is expected to arrive at Yorktown early today, and the delegates will spend several hours going over the historic battlefield. They will take luncheon today at Virginia Beach, and from there will return to Fort Monroe, where a drill will be given late this afternoon in their honor. The triennal banquet of the society will be held tonight at Old Point Comfort. Ambassador Jusserand will be the principal speaker.

Immediately after the banquet the Southland will leave Old Point for Washington, and is scheduled to arrive early tomorrow morning.

SALE AT ENGINE COMPANY'S WORKS

Outcome of Cases in the Circuit Court for The City.

NOT MANY BIDDERS.

But Little Interest Shown by Few Persons Who Attended the Auction Sale at Noon Today.

Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, at noon today offered for sale the real estate of the Emerson Engine Works at the foot of Duke street, also on Duke street near Union, with the property at the northwest corner of Duke and Union streets, together with the machinery, engines and other contents of the buildings. The sale was by virtue of the Circuit Court for the city of the authority of the Circuit Court for the city vested in Gardner L. L. Boothe, Howard W. Smith, C. E Nicol, Samuel G. Brent, R. D. Brumback G. Washington Lewis, and John S. Barbour, commissioners, in the chancery cause of the Central Metal and Supply Company vs. the Emerson Engine Company, Incorporated, et al., and R. D. Weaver and R. H. Goldsborough vs. Victor Lee Emerson et al., consolidated.

The bidding lacked spirit from start to finish. Donald Woodward bid $5,100 for the building on the site of the old Pioneer Mills, after which the building was withdrawn.

William Baader purchased a building opposite the above, formerly part of the Moore machine shops, for $650, and a lot on the north side of Duke street, near Union, for $145.

The old blacksmith shop at the northwest corner of Duke and Union streets, was knocked down to Aitcheson Bros., for $975.

The machinery in the building at the southeast corner of Prince and Fairfax streets, was purchased by Gelb & Co., Inc., for $4,500.

The engines and parts of engines in the same building were knocked down to Stephen Davis, for $2,100.

PREPARING FOR CARNIVAL.

Decorators and carpenters are hard at work in turning the Elks' Auditorium into a fairy land where the various nations of the world will congregate on Monday night to attend the carnival of the Alexandria Motor Boat Club. The scenic effects are being arranged by Lucien Duffey, an Alexandria boy, who has attained a country-wide reputation as a scenic artist, and is now employed at the National Theatre in Washington. The carnival will last for ten days and an interesting program has been arranged. Every evening from 8 to 9:30 o'clock dancing.

Contributions in cash or merchandise from the following firms are acknowledged: D. W. Aitcheson, Brawner & Bro., John C. Cockey, Hamilton & Co., A. Katz, Kauffman Bros., Monroe & Monroe, Mrs. J. C. Pullin, Swift & Co., H. W. Wildt & Sons, Blonheim & Co., Weil Bros.

PAYNE IN A NEW POSE.

A. J. Payne, game warden of Fairfax county, who suddenly appears on the scene when game laws of the state are being violated by residents or non-residents of the Commonwealth, recently captured a huge ducking gun of unlawful length and bore which an Alexandria nimrod intended "letting go" on unsuspecting flocks feeding in Hunting Creek, with the object of crippling all he couldn't kill. Payne later armed himself with the terrible weapon and backing himself against a wall had his picture snapped. He was showing the print to friends in this city this morning.

Payne has a motor boat with which he chases offenders on water and a horse which he uses on terra firma. In addition to these equipments he has a pair of powerful field glasses. The huge fowling piece alluded to above makes him as much to be dreaded as Captain Scott and his famous fowling piece, at whose approach the coons are said to have called out, "don't shoot, I'll come down."

Individuality

There's insipidness in sameness live men travel a different streak
And do not follow beaten paths but mark our ways unique,
Thus they are individual and have something to own and claim
So come to me for tailored suits of my distinctive name.
The garments I turn out are individual and distinctive. They have quality, style, fit and grace.

ECHOES OF CIVIL WAR

Movements of Old Dominion Riflemen During First Six Months of 1861

The following are extracts from the diary of a member of the Old Dominion rifles which was one of the Alexandria companies of the army of Northern Virginia. The notes are from the first six months of the year 1861:

January 10. Signed the constitution of the company.

January 21. Received my first gun; an old musket.

January 24. Wm. H. Fowle, Jr., elected second lieutenant of the company.

February 7. Old Dominion rifles voted unanimously to join the battalion.

February 15. The company visited the fair room in uniform.

February 19. Capt. M. D. Corse elected major of the Alexandria Battalion. Received rifle, No. 51.

February 22. The usual parade, Alexandria's annual memorial to the "Father of his Country," took place. Among the citizens and fire companies marched the Old Dominion Rifles, the Warren Rifles, the Loudoun Guards, the Mount Vernon Guards, and the Alexandria Riflemen.

February 23. Abraham Lincoln, the new President of the United States, arrived in Washington.

March 4. Abraham Lincoln was inaugurated President.

April 13. Unconditional surrender of Fort Sumpter.

April 18. Battalion met in Armory, and the first guard detailed for protection of the City. Great excitement.

April 19. Fight in Baltimore. Excitement intense.

April 21. The flag boat Alice Fox crossed the Potomac and brought over three Marylanders.

April 23. A guard under Lieutenant Fowle was sent to watch the Long Bridge. The first infantry on said post. During this month the Old Dominion Rifles were ordered to Warrenton, Va., where they guarded the commissary stores being collected at that point. After about two weeks absence we returned and took up our quarters in the Peyton Grove Mansion, located on the north side of the upper end of King street.

May 24 Early on this day the enemy landed at the wharves and were joined by those who, during the night, marched down the pike from Washington. Soon after daylight the Battalion, except the Old Dominion Rifles, who were overlooked, rendezoused at the corner of Washington and Prince streets in preparation for evacuating the city. In the meantime the tragedy at the Marshall House, in which Colonel Ellsworth and Jackson the keeper of the hotel, were killed, had occurred. The battalion marching out the Duke street road, met several trains of cars backing in from Springfield station. Halting these trains all embarked, and were taken to Manassas, where many Virginia troops had assembled.

Manassas, June 1st. Captain John Q. Marr, of the Warrenton Rifles, was killed in a skirmish at Fairfax Court House.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

DEATH OF ISAAC INGLE.

Virginian Was Brother-in-Law of Senator Kern.

Roanoke, Va., April 18.—Isaac Ingle, aged 89, brother-in-law of Senator John W. Kern, died Thursday afternoon at his home in Botetourt county after a long illness. Funeral services will be conducted at the home at 11 o'clock Saturday.

He lived in the Daleville neighborhood all of his life, as did his parents. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Sarah E. Kern, a sister to Senator Kern; one brother, Joseph Ingle, of Hollins, and four daughters.

Senator Kern has been notified of the death of Mr. Ingle, and it is expected the Kern family will attend the funeral services tomorrow.

IN MEMORIAM.

Entered into Rest Eternal at his home in Alexandria, Virginia, on the 11th day of April, Easter Eve, in the hope of blessed resurrection, in the 71st year of his age

He was born in Lexington, Va., his early childhood was spent among scenes of great natural beauty, and an environment that no doubt helped to form a character that throughout his life, stood for all that was best in human nature.

After the death of his father, the Rev. Wm. Bryant, (who, though a graduate of West Point, left the U. S. army to join the Church Militant) his mother returned to Georgetown to be near her family and friends and where Capt. Bryant, still a youth took up his life's work.

The war came on with its upheaval, of all things on our border, and young Bryant made his choice to stand with his people for weal or woe, in which resolution he never faltered.

He offered his services to the Governor of Virginia and was sent first as a cadet to the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, where after some training, he was ordered for duty with the 17th Virginia Infantry and received his first baptism of fire May 5th, 1862, at the battle of Williamsburg. Col M .D. Corse in his report of this battle, says, my acting Adjutant, Cadet J. Herbert Bryant, displayed great zeal and courage, moving from one end of the lines to the other, cheering the men on."

We cannot follow his course through the four years of war. He was with the 17th Virginia in nearly all of its engagements, acting with conspicuous gallantry, at all times.

The last six months of the war he served on the staff of Gen. Terry, he was badly wounded at South Mountain, in the defense of the gap inst Genl. McClellan's advance, before Antietam, and again dangerously wounded at Sailor's Creek, the last but most hotly contested engagement before the surrender Appomattox. He laid on the battlefield for 36 hours and was finally sent as a prisoner to Fortress Monroe, and from there to a hospital in Washington, where he recovered his health and strength.

Manly in form, striking in feature courteous to all whom he met, he followed the path of duty as he saw it, with a heart ever open to the cry of the unfortunate and the needy, and responsive to every call of public duty. He received the Master's call with patience and resignation, and now rests from his labors.

"Suffice it that he never brought
His conscience to the public mart
But lived himself the truth he taught,
White souled, clean handed
Pure of heart."

The churches, schools and the whole community are being appealed to, to contribute towards this much needed fund.

Wounded Wife Orders Removal of Slayer's Effects From Her Home.

Luray, Va., April 18.—Before being conveyed to a railroad station for her departure for a hospital, where it is hoped an operation may save her life, notwithstanding the five bullet wounds in her body inflicted by her husband, Paul Anderson, who killed himself Tuesday afternoon after attempting to murder his wife, Mrs. Anderson gave orders to have all the personal effects removed from her home.

Anderson has been married to his wife about two years. From the contents of his pockets evidence was furnished that Anderson was a morphine fiend and given to excessive cigarette smoking.

At the time Anderson slew his wife a warrant was out for his arrest, he being charged with skipping his board bill at Shenandoah, and getting the pistol with which he shot Mrs. Anderson under circumstances sufficient to have a warrant issued for his apprehension.

TWO COUNTY POSTMASTERS.

Clarendon Has Three-Cornered Contest—Rosslyn Changes Ahead.

The postoffices at Clarendon and Rosslyn are receiving attention in the office of First Assistant Postmaster General Daniel C. Roper, and at Clarendon a sharp contest between the applicants has developed.

At the recent examination the applicants who passed highest in the order of their ratings were Mr. Bradfield, who runs the drug store near the railway station, Mr. Payne, who is in the grocery department at Woodward & Lothrop's and Dr. T. F. Simpson, a well-known practicing physician. Mr. Bradfield has the endorsement to Representative Carlin and to the department of R. C. L. Moncure, former state Democratic committeeman, while Dr. Simpson is backed by County Clerk George H. Rucker. Mr. Payne is relying upon his standing in the examination, his promise to give his entire time to the office and the good will and recommendation of his neighbors. Dr. Simpson, it has been assumed, cannot as a practicing physician give the postoffice his personal attention; but he promises to devote at least 8 hours day to the work.

Representative Carlin has not yet publicly expressed a preference for either of the candidates.

The postoffice at Rosslyn, it is understood, pays $75 a month, and out of this the postmaster must pay office rent.

In case the engineer's plans for relocation of the railway stations are adopted and carried out, the office must be removed from the railway station and will probably be put near the bank on the main street of the village. Robert Wallace, who has long had the Rosslyn office was not eligible for the examination, because he lives at Cherrydale.

Hospital treatment is better than home-treatment in most cases. Therefore, each individual is personally interested in having in their home town an up-to-date hospital.

Nothing So Good for a Cough or Cold. When you have a cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. There are many who consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unsurpassed. Mrs. J. Boroff, Elida, Ohio, says, "Ever since my daughter Ruth was cured of a severe cold and cough by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy two years ago, I have felt kindly disposed toward the manufacturers of that preparation. I know of nothing so quick to relieve a cough or cure a cold." For sale by all dealers.

RICHMOND RESERVE BANK.

Five Institutions for District to be Named Within Next Few Days.

Washington, April 8.—Five banks in the Richmond reserve district, embracing Washington, probably will be designated within the next three days as incorporators of the Richmond reserve bank. This will be the first of the reserve banks incorporated. Sufficient capital subscriptions have been received from the banks in that district to guarantee an initial reserve bank capital of $4,000,000, the minimum required by the currency act.

Pleased with having gotten one of the twelve reserve bank designations, bankers in the Richmond district have rushed in their capital subscriptions. Their efforts have been watched, it is understood, with pleasure by John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency and a member of the organization committee, whose home is in Richmond.

Under the provisions of the currency act, the organization committee is empowered to designate five banks in each reserve district to act as incorporated. Comptroller Williams said yesterday that the reserve banks would be incorporated as rapidly as their capital subscriptions reach the committee, and that the organization of the twelve would not be simultaneous, because the committee does not purpose to hold up organization in one section of the country because another is dilatory.

Speedy organization of the Richmond bank is desirable because it will be called upon to finance early tobacco and cotton crops. The designation of Richmond as a reserve bank city aroused sharp and instant criticism, and the bankers in that district, being in a measure on the defensive, evidently intend to counteract the impression that has been spread about the country as quickly as possible.

Capital subscriptions are pouring in rapidly upon the organization committee. It it probable that sufficient subscriptions will be on file to permit the designation of incorporators in all of the twelve districts by May 1.

IMPROVING MANASSAS.

Work Begun on New Water And Sewerage Systems.

Manassas, Va., April 18.—Work is progressing on the public streets looking toward the installation of the water and sewerage systems, which are to cost $75,000. The workmen are covering the ground with rapidity, and on every hand the highways are marked with ridges of unsettled earth where the stout macadam has been torn up to admit the laying of plies. Public spirit taxes enthusiastic as the improvements are in progress and many citizens' meetings are planned to advance the interests of the town.

George W. Faris, a former Republican representative in Congress from Indiana, and in recent years prominent in local business and financial circles, died suddenly yesterday from acute indigestion in Washington. He was 60 years old, and apparently in good health until a few hours of the time he was stricken.

No contribution is binding unless the sum of $30,000 is subscribed and contributions can be paid in monthly or quarterly installments.

EVERYONE SHOULD HELP HOSPITAL FUND.

Outside of local pride which citizens should take in every project for the betterment of conditions in their community, every Alexandrian should consider the campaign to secure $50,000 for the erection of a new hospital in Alexandria as a matter of their own personal welfare. The campaign begins tomorrow, and if the money is to be raised in the time allotted the earnest support of this city and the surrounding counties will be necessary.

Alexandria needs a new hospital. By comparing the work which the hospital is called upon to do with the facilities which it has to carry on this work, one can readily see the truth of this statement. $50,000 is needed to erect and equip new buildings for the accommodation of patients. A small part of this amount has already been obtained, and the committee will do all within their power to secure the rest, but the people of Alexandria must cooperate with them in their efforts, or the whole plan will fall through. By a little self-denial and the contributions of a small amount a month, every one in Alexandria can help in securing this money.

The managers of the hospital cannot be praised quite enough for vast amount of work they are accomplishing under the present trying conditions of the hospital. But jus tto think what more could be done with a better ter and larger hospital.

The present buildings and accommodation of the hospital are entirely inadequate, and there is urgent need for better rooms, better beds, wards, larger buildings, and everything else that go to make up a modern institution. Patients have often been turned away for lack of room. Twenty patients will overcrowd the hospital at any time. Many cases where patients have been refused treatment can be cited. Besides this, the hospital is often forced to refuse admittance to private patients, and is thus cut off from one of its chief sources of revenue.

Perhaps a summary of conditions will help in establishing in some minds the imperative demand for increased facilities. There are at present some thirty-six beds, including those of private patients, in the hospital; there are also five wards: two for white, male and female, two for colored, male and female, and one for children. The "wards" are only 16 by 14 feet in measurement, and contain only few beds closely crowded together. Owing to this congestion patients are often turned away, and some cases such as those of alcoholism and insanity, which probably could be treated, cannot be cared for at all. Many pedsons are turned away before they are properly convalesced to give room to more urgent cases. Every room, including those of the nurses and attaches of the institution, is frequently utilized, but still this does not make room for the constantly increasing number of persons sent to the hospital for treatment. With the development of the city and the increase of its population, a necessarily greater number of cases must betreated at the city's hospital, and, while the Alexandria Hospital is one of the oldest institutions of the city, and other city property has been improved and adapted to modern conditions, the hospital has been neglected, and has remained practically the same ever since its erection.

The time has come when the one hospital of Alexandrian must be improved. The workers of the hospital are sincere and untiring in their labors, and the management is all that could be desired. The one great thing needed above all else, however, is a larger and more modern building with accommodation for many times the present number of patients.

ASSASSINS STILL IN EVIDENCE.

The deliberate attempt on the part of an elderly and irresponsible man to murder John Purroy Mitchell, Mayor of New York, yesterday in City Hall Park, the busiest spot in the great city, will form another chapter in the annals of assassinations, and attempted assassinations in the United States. Three years ago the late Mayor Gaynor, of the same city, was shot down on the eve of his departure for Europe by a crank who was nurturing some grievance in connection with the Mayor's conduct of public business. Gaynor, however, was not mortally wounded, and eventually recovered. His death six months ago was due to the wound that he received.

Less than twenty years ago Carter Harrison, Mayor of Chicago, was ruthlessly slain by an outlaw, while attempts upon the lives of officials of more or less prominence in different sections of the country have become common.

People in the Old Dominion are still talking of the terrible Hillsville tragedy, when men resorted to the pistol for the purpose of carrying out their ideas of recall when courts fail to settle cases contrary to the wishes of litigants and lawbreakers.

An Englishman, prominent in his day, became a justice of the peace at one period of his life. His biographer in describing his qualities as a successful business man and the honest manner in which he disposed of public business entrusted to him, said he lacked one essential as a judge—he could never dispose of a case to the entire satisfaction of both the plaintiff and defendant. Many others who have been placed in positions where decisions have to be rendered have found themselves equally deficient.

Nearly every man who has filled the position of Mayor of a city has had more or less trouble with disappointed people. Threats are often made, although but seldom carried out. In the spring of 1897 a negro charged with assaulting a white girl was taken from the station house in Alexandria at midnight and hanged to a lamp post. The act occasioned indignation among blacks, and a few nights later word was received in this city from a negro settlement in the county that a horde of drunken blacks, armed with razors, pistols, clubs, etc., were on their way to Alexandria to wreak vengeance. The Alexandria Light Infantry was soon stretched across the road on Washington street extended, anxious to receive the visitors. The latter, however, had been apprised of the action of the authorities and concluded to abandon their proposed invasion of the city.

A meeting of negroes was subsequently held in a Washington Church, at which it was decided that it was necessary to remove the Mayor of Alexandria in western fashion. As a result of the conference that official a few days later received a letter warning him to flee the country—not to stop in the United States—as his assassination had been decreed. He was also told that it was the purpose of the conspirators to decapitate him and attach his head to a Pullman car and send it into the southern country as a warning to whites.

The object of the negroes' fury has lived to tell the tale.

IN CHANCERY.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this state, and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons. That the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of cruelty and wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of cruelty and wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and to do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the clerk to this court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to-wit, on Washington street, Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the clerk to this court, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the courthouse of this court on or before the next rule day of this court.

Stomach Trouble Cured

Mrs. H. [illegible], Cleveland, Arnold, Pa., writes, "For some time I have suffered from stomach trouble. I would have sour stomach and feel bloated after eating. Nothing benefitted me until I got Chamberlain's Tablets. After taking two bottles of them I was cured." For sale by all dealers.

BIG AGRICULTURAL LAND OPENING

TWELVE HUNDRED AND FIFTY TRACTS of five and ten acres each to be granted in prospective settlers in throwing open Twenty Thousand Acres of Rich, Southern Georgia Land, which is admirably adapted to the growing of celery, sweet and Irish potatoes, cantaloupes, water melons, corn, oats, cotton, hay—in fact all staple crops grown in this fertile section, as well as a large variety of semi-tropical fruits, and the famous immensely profitable paper-shell pecans.

Providing you are eligible under the classifications prescribed by us, you are now offered an excellent opportunity to break away from the drudgery and toil of a small wage, or working for the benefit of landlords, and go back to the land of plenty, to which, if granted, you will hold a warranty deed and abstract.

The best security on earth is the earth itself and land is the basis of all wealth. Owners of productive lands are benefitting by the increasing high cost of living, while others are suffering from it.

An Opportunity to Secure Rich Productive Land Without Capital.

You will not be required to leave your present surroundings now. All we ask of those to whom we grant tracks is that they plant or arrange a crop of one of the above-mentioned products within three years, after which we will have it operated (harvested and replanted) for grantees, in consideration of 25 per cent. of the net profits derived from the sale of the crops, thereby allowing the grantee to pursue his or her present occupation until such time as they determine just what the yield of their acres amounts to. Consider what this may mean as a source of income, when statistics show that the yield of one acre of celery amounted to $1,268.45, and that one acre of well-cared-for paper-shell pecans, in full bearing, should net its owner as high as $500.00 per year. We are of the opinion that after it is proven by actual results obtained in operating the land that they will need no further arguing, and waste no time in locating on this land of plenty. We also require grantees to occupy the land within ten years, or sell it to some one who will occupy it, otherwise it reverts back to the grantor.

The land included in this opening is located directly on and adjoining the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, about twenty-five miles west of Brunswick, a thriving city of fifteen thousand, having direct steamship service to New York and Boston, and excellent railroad transportation facilities to all points. The average temperature for six months of the year, from April to October, is 77 degrees; the climate is most healthful, delightful, and invigorating, and there is an ample rainfall of 51 inches per year.

Our Aim is For Mutually Beneficial Results.

As we are extremely desirous of having settlers locate on this property, and assist in its development, and thereby greatly increase the value of surrounding and intervening property, which we will hold and to increase the traffic along the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, and thus facilitate the service, we feel warranted in granting these tracts to those who register with us. We also have in mind business and residence plots which we will offer for sale after the opening, but which will not be included in it. We have "money-making afterward" considerations in this liberal-minded opening similar to those of the Northern Pacific and other railroads when they granted their lands, and we expect to benefit thereby, as well as the ones who will receive the tracts.

We have also planned to develop what is designed to be the best equipped, most up-to-date, scientific, commercial farm and orchard in existence. It will consist of six thousand acres and will be included in this opening. All who register and receive tracts will get the benefit of the experiments and scientific methods in vogue thereon. While we are arranging to prevent over-registration, we will avoid many disappointments, such as occurred in other land openings conducted by the United States Government and railroads, by granting those who register in excess of the number of tracts to be granted, an interest in this commercial farm and orchard enterprise, in the hope that they may later locate in one of our town sites.

Examination of the land will be cheerfully permitted, and the opening will be held at Browntown, Wayne county, Georgia, one of the stations of the A. B. & A. Railroad, which is located on this property, and will occur as soon after the closing of registrations as arrangements can be made.

The presence of those registered will not be necessary at Browntown on the opening day, unless they wish to attend, for there will be no favoritism shown any one. It will be conducted by a committee selected for the purpose, and those registered will be notified of what they have been granted, as soon as possible.

With an ever-increasing population of this country there is no corresponding increase in the area of land, and naturally as the population increases and seeks the land in pursuit of health, happiness and independence, it will continue to be harder to secure.

The prosperous and contented class in Europe today are the descendants of those who secured land there when it was plentiful, while the descendants of those who obtained no land are now the peasants and slaves. You must realize that this may be your last chance to secure land in this country without a large outlay of capital, so it should not be necessary to urge you to act at once by forwarding us the application for registration attached to this announcement.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile, but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

Officers for ext Three Months Elected at Meeting of Literary Society—Baseball Game This Week.

Literary Society Elects Officers.

The Alexandria High School Literary Society met in the school building Saturday night. The most important business transacted at the meeting was the election of officers for the next three months. Miss Helen Blake, who has served so faithfully both as vice president and president of the Society, was unanimously re-elected president; Miss Flora Glasgow was again chosen vice president; Miss Dolly Callahan was elected secretary; Ashby Bladen re-elected treasurer; and Miss Madeline Martin, who has served before in that office, was chosen sergeant-at-arms. These officers will serve until the end of the this school term.

The rendition of the program for the evening was very interesting. The subject for debate was "Resolved, that the Senate should pass the Sims bill, as passed by the House," which brought forth strong and well-prepared argument from both sides. The affirmative, Frank Johnston and Miss Mabel Henderson, brought out several very strong points, as did also the negative, Miss Flora Glasgow and Ashby Bladen. The affirmative, however, had just the shade the best of the debate, and was accordingly awarded the decision. Declamations were rendered by Miss Corinne Reardon, Jack Reardon, and Otis Sunderlin. Miss Reardon declaimed Poe's "Israfel," Jack Reardon, O'Hara's "The Bivouac of the Dead," and Sunderlin, a section from Plato. All were very strongly put forth, and showed the marked progress of the members in this line of public speaking. Mr. Fisher acted as Critic, and in his report paid a compliment to the progress of the Society, and helped both debaters and declaimers by his criticisms and praises. The committee on challenging schools to debate was not present, and the report of this committee of one will be heard at the next meeting, when further action on this matter will be taken up.

Next Meeting.

The next meeting of the Society is to be held next Saturday night, April 25th. The subject for debate is "Resolved, that the work of a Literary Society, including dramatics, is of educational value to a high school." This is a question that is of interest not only to High School students here but also many citizens. The debaters are: Affirmative, Misses Mildred Calahan and Sarah Cox; negative, Miss Nina Fulton and Lawrence Fawcett. The debate is expected to be especially good, and the public is cordially invited to attend the meeting, and hear the argument put forth for and against, and form their own opinion. The declaimers for the evening are Misses Madeline Martin and Ruth LeHew and Gus Pohl. A full attendance of members is also requested.

A. H. S. Loses.

The Alexandria High School baseball team lost to Technical High School of Washington Tuesday at the ball park. The score was 8 to 2.

Pupils Enjoy Holiday.

Pupils of the High School returned to school Tuesday after their Easter holiday of Good Friday and Easter Monday.

Fire Drill.

Fire drill was held in the school Friday. The building was emptied in less than one-and-one-half minutes.

Jefferson School Afraid.

The Jefferson School for boys of Charlottesville, for some unaccountable reason, backed out of the game they were to play with the A. H. S. baseball team Easter Monday. The school fans were greatly disappointed at not being able to see a holiday game.

Miss Hoffman Returns.

Miss Hoffman returned to school during the week after her short illness. Mr. Johnson taught English during her absence, and Captain Sweeney was called in to teach mathematics. With the Teachers' Examination over, things are running in their regular order.

Fredericksburg Games Postponed

The games to have been played at Fredericksburg the 17th and 18th by the A. H. S. 9, one with Fredericksburg High School and the other with Fredericksburg College, were postponed on account of the wet grounds. They will be played off at Fredericksburg May 1st and 2nd.

NEWS OF THE DAY

A prominent canal official when asked yesterday in Panama to describe the present condition of the canal as to passage of warships through the Culebra slide district said: "Even the largest vessel of the navy could be passed on three days' notice to the dredging force. Vessels of ordinary draught, may pass the channel now, and the dredges at work at present could open an absolutely adequate passage and keep an open waterway, that the whole navy, if needed, could cross to the Pacific side." Work on the fortification and terminals is being rushed to the limit, more than 30,000 men being still on the pay rolls.

The President and Mrs. Wilson announced from the White House yesterday that the wedding of Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson and Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo will take place on Thursday, May 7. The hour set for the ceremony was not made public in yesterday's announcement, nor were any other details made known except that, in accordance with the wishes of Miss Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, the wedding will be small and that only the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, the cabinet, and the immediate members of the two families are to be present.

Pushing his wife, Mary, 42 years old, against a hot stove in his home at Boonville, Ind., yesterday, William Folsom, 52 years old, a prosperous Warwick county farmer, held her while he fired two shots into her heart, killing her instantly. He then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting three wounds in the breast, none of which, physicians say, will prove fatal. The shooting occurred following the wife's denial of the charge of infidelity made by Folsom, it is said, and her refusal of his demand that she surrender her wedding ring. The Folsoms are the parents of ten children, ranging in ages from 3 to 25 years.

James Black, 23 years old, was killed in front of his home at Bagtown, Md., yesterday afternoon by the discharge of a gun in the hands of Russell Reynolds, 16 years old, who claims that the shooting was accidental. Black's brother, Roy Black, who witnessed the shooting, alleges Reynolds had the gun to his shoulder and aimed it at James Black.

In the presence of his 4-year-old daughter, John Dovia, of Cleveland Ohio, murdered his wife, after a domestic quarrel yesterday and then committed suicide.

Dr. Booker T. Washington, principal of Tuskeegee Normal and Industrial Institute, has issued a call to the negroes of the United States asking them to set aside Sunday, June 7, and Monday, June 8, as special days on which to protest to railroads against discrimination on account of color in the matter of providing passenger accommodations.

Oscar Harrison, 27 years old, was found guilty and sentenced to 24 years in the penitentiary in Kansas City yesterday on charges of being one of the five assailants who attacked Mrs. Gertrude Shidler, a nurse. Vice Gueringer, tried two weeks ago on the same charge, was sentenced to be hanged.

Support for the proposed repeal of the toll sexemption clause of the Panama Canal act was given yesterday before the Senate Canals committee by representatives of the New York Chamber of Commerce, who said that their organization, made up of representative business men, had approved of repeal by an overwhelming majority.

A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. American says: "The rumor ran through the capitol yesterday that Secretary of State Bryan is to resign within a month and that Secretary of Interior Franklin K. Lane, is to become premier of the Wilson administration. Mr. Bryan, it is said, is to become director general of the Carnegie Peace Foundation at a salary of $25,000 a year and a retirement pension."

SENDS BOOK TO BRIDE.

Washington, April 18.—Papers and addresses of our Presidents, from Washington to Roosevelt, in book form, were the gift of Secretary of State Bryan to Representative Henry D. Flood, of Virginia, and Miss Anna Portner, who are to be married this afternoon at All Soul's Church.

Thomas F. Ryan, New York and Virginia multimillionaire, gave the bride-to-be a magnificent bar pin four inches in length, with a pearl-shaped diamond in the center. The House committee on Foreign affairs, of which Mr. Flood is acting chairman, sent three beautiful silver dishes, one of which is very large. The Representative's constituents sent two silver dishes.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

soon be closed up after a short exam and class reprts on the little classic. The next and last classic to be taken up this session is Franklin's Autobiography. Physics is certain to be introduced by next Thursday at least, taking the place of Botany. The Sophs wil close up their study of Botany with a test followng the review they are now having. The regular six weeks' Algebra test was held yesterday, and a History test will be held Monday on the French Revolution, which they have been outlining and reviewing the past few days.

Second Team Games.

The return game at Washington, which the second team was to play Wednesday with St. John's College scrubs was called off because of the rain. The game will probably be played at some later date. The second team, because of Technical High Schol's failure to show up yesterday, played no game.

Game Today.

The first team will tackle the strong Eastern High School nine of Washington at the park today at 2:30 p. m. A good game is expected, as the A. H. S. is smarting from their defeat at the hands of Tech Tuesday and will go their limit against the crack Eastern team. The High School will play with its usual line-up, with Raison and Schafer as its battery.

First Year Tests.

Tests were held yesterday in the First Year in science and history. The Freshmen have been reviewing the past week in algebra for a test next Monday.

Manager and Bookkeeper Murdered.

Geddes South Dakota, April 18.—The charred bodies of W. H. Menzie, manager of the Farmers' Lumber cdatpany and his bookkeeper, Miss Blanche Signal, were found yesterday in the ruins of the company's office. Both had been murdered and the building burned. Their skulls had been crushed by a blunt instrument. The girl's hands and feet had been tied with a wire. Menzie's Feet also were bound. They were last seen alive when they went to the office last Thursday night to post some books.
